

JOHNNY DUNDEE LOSES A PURSE

Near Champ Cancels Three Bouts As a Result Of an Injury.

It is rather a costly proposition for a boxer of class to be laid up these days. Johnny Dundee, the New York star, who was taken ill in Milwaukee the day of his match with Richie Mitchell—March 15—figures that he is out of pocket over $2000. Johnny would have received $2000 for his bout, and he had three more out west which would have netted $2000 at least, and probably more, with a second in Milwaukee worth another $2000.

To Hard Luck.
It happened just at a time when the matches were worked up to the proper pitch for Dundee. The same postponements cost Mitchell fully as much, having the Dundee and two other bouts called off. Mitchell bumped into the same kind of luck just last fall when he was matched with Sully Freedman, the match being postponed twice on account of the "flu" and the third time when Richie was ordered to London two days before his match.

Illness caused Billy Weeks and his manager, Billy Bishop of Cincinnati, a bunch of coin, and the same can be said for Johnny Ertle, the St. Paul bantam, the latter being taken ill when he had over $2000 worth of matches signed up. The above are only a few of many boxers losing through damaged hands, etc., throughout the country.

Charley Hayes, Teacher, Is Out

Charley Hayes, the fast Prince light-weight, who acted as assistant boxing instructor to Mike Gibbons at Camp Cordova, Ga., has been mustered out of the service and is ready to resume hostilities in the padded ring. Charley's teacher, Jack, who has trained Willie Jackson and other prominent boxers in handling his affairs, expects to show Charley up for a bout in Philadelphia before the end of the week.

Catcher Baldwin Once a Chicagoan

New York, April 26.—Catcher Earl Baldwin, of the Yankees, was at one time a member of the Chicago White Sox, even before he had played with a minor league club. The Sox picked him up in 1915 when the team trained at Peoria, Ill., and he returned to Chicago with the club, being last out in May to the Peoria club, of the Three-I league. From Peoria he went to Tacoma, then to Spokane, and finally to Portland. It was while playing with the last named team that Baldwin attracted the attention of the Yankees scouts and he was drafted by the local club.

Indians Will Have Rifle Club

Takima, Wash., April 16.—Indians of the Takima reservation are organizing a rifle club and expect to enter the amateur events at the Washington state tournament to be held in May. One of the Indian leaders says the American "Trapshooters" association has advised him that the Takima club, when organized, will be the first Indian organization of its kind in the country.

THE things the soldiers are saying about the Cadillac are grounded on something more solid than sentiment.

They are not based on the fact that the Cadillac was chosen the official car of the United States Army.

They spring from the whole-hearted pride which the American soldier felt when he saw the Cadillac make good—after it had been so chosen.

The supreme test, with a soldier, is active service—and he saw the Cadillac, in active service, cover itself with honor.

It is good, in these stirring times, to be an American—and it is good also to be of the household of the Cadillac.

GIBBONS PICKS UP EASY MONEY

Contender for Middleweight Title Is on the Coast; Wins Many Fights.

Mike Gibbons, contender for the middle weight championship, has never been strong for the long distance game, but the great Michael is evidently going backward or is looking for soft jobs these days. There are plenty of matches for Mike around the middle west and good money, too, but the St. Paul phantom has accepted terms on the Pacific coast.

Can't Blame Mike.
No one can blame Mike for showing himself out west and getting some easy money, for the four round game will be set for the clever Gibbons. It will be a mere workout for him, the same as the short bouts used to be for Young Geffis when he was at his best. With the Mitchell days of Milwaukee, Pinky and Richie, Jack Malone and several other lesser lights on their way or already landed, the coast fight fans will see a number of new faces this spring.

Boosted Falsely.
It will no doubt stimulate the Chicago crowd to a number of second and third raters out there posing as stars, and they have not helped the reputation of the west and middle west with the coast fans. Boxers who are not considered good second raters through the eastern states have been boosted as start out west.

State Riflemen

To Hold Shoot

Tucson, Ariz., April 26.—Saturday and Sunday here will be devoted especially to the state shoot at the Arizona Rifle association, held on the double range of the Arizona Rifle club, near the city. Two teams will represent Tucson, the Schuchert, Harkness, Kavanagh, Norman, Martin and Hart. Phoenix also will have two teams, the Lanning president, Pope, of its rifle club; Edens, who was high man in the last state shoot and who lately won the gun club championship, Gully and Latorre, who have been on the Arizona national team several times, and Francis.

This second team will be Beardsley, Rasmussen, Hughes, Schiedler and secretary Garner. Soldier teams are expected from Nogales, Yuma, and Douglas. Another team will be from the university. Individual members of clubs will come from many points.

SOX BUY OIL STOCK.

Trading at Mineral Wells, in the midst of the Texas oil fields, many of the Chicago White Sox players got the fever and were easy marks for salesmen for oil stock. A number of them now have pretty places of paper in their possession representing millions in dividends—providing the wells come in.

BOYLAND

STRENGTHENED teams will take the field Sunday afternoon in the Spaulding Boyland league, which was reorganized at a well attended meeting of the team managers Friday night.

Play will be a double header held at the high school stadium every Sunday afternoon. The first game at 2 o'clock, while the second will be staged at 3:45 o'clock.

An additional team will be started, known as the El Paso Terminal association, captained by D. M. Ellis and managed by J. F. O'Neil. This team has been putting forth classy ball the last few weeks and will undoubtedly strengthen the league left weakened by the withdrawal of the Independents.

Manager Seagr of the Overland team, has handed the reins over to Chum, a player of last year's Western Union team. This organization is a strong one and should give all teams a tumble for honors.

Manager Lagarias was unable to attend the meeting but sent word that his team would be on hand Sunday to battle the Monogram Kids.

The Terminal team will start with an even percentage and all postponed games that have not as yet been played will be dropped, making the league to have four double header games in the first set yet to play.

Player lists will be revised and adopted on May 3, each team being allowed 12 men on name, as in the past.

The trophy cups for the three leagues namely, Junior league, Intermediate league and Boyland league, have been shipped and will be on display at the W. G. Wals store on Tuesday. The cups are of three different sizes and are all the same and carry engraving suitable for their respective league.

Dempsey Stranger To New Yorkers

Jack Dempsey is almost a stranger to New York fight fans. Jess Willard's challenger arose from obscurity so quickly that all his battles have taken place during the short time since the Praxley lay was wound off the books. If the boxing law had not been killed Dempsey would have been a great attraction in this city and every local fight fan would have known all about his style of fighting and general ability. As it happens, only a small percentage of New Yorkers who are followers of boxing have seen him in action.

Much Interest In Volley Ball

Physical director A. L. Holm, of the Y. M. C. A., is anticipating a large crowd to attend the volley ball contest tonight between the Business Men's team and the local fire department. The contest with the department promises to be one of the hardest fought games of the season for the Business Men, who so far have not been defeated.

The first team has been practicing a great deal of late and are in fine condition for the contest. Director Holm states that the game is an open one and volley ball enthusiasts are invited to attend.

Team Managers Cuts Personnel

New York, April 26.—American league managers will find it difficult this year to cut down to a player limit after several seasons of a 25 player limit. Miller Huggins figures that the ideal arrangement would be to have three catchers, four pitchers, six infielders and four outfielders, but says he may not be able to follow the plan closely. He may cut down to seven pitchers and two catchers in order to keep another infielder and another outfielder with the squad.

Grandview Team Wins Track Meet

Finishing one point ahead of their nearest rivals the Yalata school, students of the Grandview county school Friday afternoon won the annual track and field meet of the county schools. A total of 67 points were scored by the Grandview squad, 10 by the Yalata school, 22 by Lincoln Park and 11 by Clint. All of the events were closely contested and the issue was in doubt until the final event had been staged.
